

Astrid Almkhlaafy

assistant professor | visual communication school of art design & media nanyang technological university
USA

- Originally from san francisco, astrid had lived and taught in tokyo, london and now at NTU Singapore. Her work focuses on pilgrimages, sacred mountains and color, using GPS, walking and photography. She holds an MFA from RISD in graphic design.

Touch

Donald Tarallo

Assistant Professor, Bridgewater State University
USA

- Donald Tarallo (BA in Studio Arts, Clark University, MFA in Graphic Design, Rhode Island School of Design, and further studies at the Basel School of Design, Basel, Switzerland) has worked as a graphic designer and photographer in Oslo, Norway and as an identity designer in Seoul, Korea. Since 1998, he has maintained a practice focusing mainly on identity design and photography, and has worked on the development of new identity systems for Sotheby's, Icograda and the Hong Kong Design Institute. Don has taught graphic design at Clark University, Rhode Island School of Design, Guangzhou Academy of Fine Art, and the Samsung Art and Design Institute. His work has been awarded by the AIGA and published in China, Korea and the United States. Don is an Assistant Professor at Bridgewater State University in Massachusetts.

The sun is but a morning star

Quote from Henri David Thoreau